Learn the True, Do the Good, Love the Beautiful

Happy New Year

Welcome back, SJCA families and scholars. We hope your break was enjoyable and relaxing. As we enter the second semester, we'd like to take some time to review a few policies and changes to procedures. Please be sure to read the Start Smart section of this month's newsletter.

Start Smart

Uniform Requirements

Formal and everyday uniform policies will be in full effect this semester. Beginning immediately, plaid may only be worn on Formal Uniform Days. K-3rd girls must wear the plaid jumper and 4th-6th grade girls must wear the plaid box pleat skirt. Please take a moment to review the full list of dress code policies for all grade levels on the website to ensure your scholar is in compliance.

Everyday Uniform Requirements: <http://stjca.org/everyday-uniforms/>

Carline Changes

Lower School car line will not open until 3 P.M. Previously, we were allowing cars on the property at 2:50 P.M.; however, the road was blocked to local traffic, and Upper School parents could not enter the loop. In order to maintain traffic flow on Canova, this change is necessary. We appreciate your cooperation.

Thank You, Junque in the Trunk

Mr. Lopez recently installed "street signs" in our hallways that were made by local retailer, Junque in the Trunk. The theme for the Lower School is prominent historical figures while the theme for the Upper School is virtues. We love the way they look in the hallways. Thanks, Junque in the Trunk, for helping to beautify our Academy.

Accolades & Recognitions

SJCA Music Department

- ◆ Mr. Clarke and the scholars from SJCA were well-received at the 2019 Holiday Music Extravaganza in Orlando on December 6th. They received an Excellent Rating and First Place in the Open Class Concert Band category. Quite a tremendous accomplishment!
- ◆ This month, one of our middle school students will be traveling to Tampa, FL where she will participate with the Florida All-State Middle School Chorus. Wedangelis Feliciano-Berrocales spent many hours outside of school preparing to audition for this honorary choir. She will join the other top singers in the state for a weekend of rehearsals and concerts. We are very proud that she is able to represent SJCA in Tampa.

SJCA Spelling Bee Competition

Congratulations to sixth grader, Keevan Krause! Keevan will represent the Academy at the next level of competition.

A Christmas Carol

Our Drama Department did a wonderful job in their most recent performance, A Christmas Carol. Thank you to the parents, especially Mr. and Mrs. Bull, who helped Mrs. Kiep and Ms. Smith put on this spectacular performance.

Junior/Senior Field Trip to Italy and Greece

There will be an informational meeting on January 23rd from 6:30 to 7:30 to discuss the class trip to Europe for juniors and seniors. Please attend if your Upper School scholar is interested in this amazing opportunity.

BoxTops for Education

Thank you for sending in your BoxTops for Education. The fall drive earned SJCA over $700.00. We appreciate your fundraising support.
